Title: A11-024: For a common migration and asylum policy

Motion text

From line 23 to 29:

4. Acknowledging that the charge of welcoming refugees is left to countries neighbouring conflicts or other humanitarian disasters ~~and that these countries are often hosting numbers far beyond their capacities;~~ which leads to the necessity to provide them with support

~~5. Highlights the need for further effective and tangible solidarity with Member States on the Union's external borders experiencing most of the arrivals to ensure that they can provide the highest standards of dignified immediate reception;~~
