

A1-001

Motion

Proposer: Reinis Gišs (JEF Europe)

Title: A1-001: JEF Europe Code of Conduct

Motion text

From line 1 to 2:

The Code of Conduct (CoE)C) outlined in this section provides a broad and non-exhaustive framework for understanding what behaviour is not permissible at

From line 31 to 36:

The following sections provide additional details pertaining to the reporting of breaches of the CoE)C), the interpretation of the CoE)C), and the measures that are available for enforcing the CoE)C).

As a condition of acceptance in events organised by JEF, participants and organisers agree to familiarise themselves with the CoE)C) and, to the best of their ability, to adhere to the following terms:

From line 118 to 119:

While making assumptions is not necessarily against the CoE)C) on the basis that people can make the wrong judgements on the appropriate comments in a particular

From line 136 to 138:

The GeGCofC applies to these individuals in the same way as it would anyone else, and no claim of a breach of the GeGCofC may be investigated either by themselves or someone who has a close relationship with them.

From line 240 to 243:

As outlined in the Introduction chapter and chapter on power relations , the GeGCofC applies to all JEF events and those in a position of power.

The GeGCofC does not apply to events of national sections and other affiliated organisations of JEF, unless the European bodies are involved as co-organisers,

From line 271 to 273:

The organisers of an event have a duty of care for anyone who is involved in a potential violation of the GeGCofC and must follow the accordant safeguarding procedures.

Reason

I think its better that we call it CofC insted of CoC as it sounds a bit inappropriate and also we already use CofC internally