

Motion

Proposer: TF Empowerment & Diversity (decided on: 03/28/2026)

Title: JEF Europe Code of Conduct

Motion text

1 The Code of Conduct (CofC) outlined in this section provides a broad and non-2 exhaustive framework for understanding what behaviour is not permissible at 3 events and forums organised by Young European Federalists (JEF), including 4 online spaces and communication channels affiliated with the organisation.

5 JEF Europe is committed to maintaining and further developing a culture based on 6 mutual respect, human dignity, safety, and equality as preconditions to ensure 7 full access and active participation, reflecting the right to an empowering 8 space for safe and inclusive participation in its activities.

9 The aim of this Code of Conduct is to ensure that every individual feels safe, 10 heard, included, and respected in JEF Europe; that every individual has the 11 means to actively participate in JEF; and that JEF as an organization 12 continuously strives for further inclusiveness, diversity, and safety in all its 13 activities.

14 The Code outlines the social and ethical responsibilities of individuals and 15 groups, and binds JEF Europe to implement the Code. The Code comprises a set of 16 substantive and procedural rules, such as the use of contact persons, to ensure 17 safe participation and an empowering space, inclusion, equity, and respect of 18 all individuals involved with JEF activities.

19 This Code of Conduct is subdivided into following 12 sections:

20 1. Acting in accordance with the Code of Conduct

- 21 2. Consent
- 22 3. Assumptions
- 23 4. Power Relations
- 24 5. Relations with the Secretariat
- 25 6. Obligations
- 26 7. Application
- 27 8. Reporting
- 28 9. Enforcement
- 29 10. Legal steps
- 30 11. Privacy

31 The following sections provide additional details pertaining to the reporting of 32 breaches of the CofC, the interpretation of the CofC, and the measures that are 33 available for enforcing the CofC.

34 As a condition of acceptance in events organised by JEF, participants and 35 organisers agree to familiarise themselves with the CofC and, to the best of 36 their ability, to adhere to the following terms:

37 1. Acting in accordance with the Code of Conduct

38 The following rules shall be interpreted broadly to include any conduct 39 considered inappropriate and inconsistent with the ideals of JEF Europe as 40 expressed in the Statutes. Any breach of these rules shall lead to action as 41 defined in the procedures in section 10.

42 Participants in JEF activities commit to adopt and promote appropriate behavior 43 including but not limited to:

- 44 1. Respecting others and not using language or behaviour that is intended to

- 45           denigrate or undermine their contributions;
- 46           2. Not discriminating on the basis of any personal or physical 47           characteristics, including gender, appearance, nationality, style or any 48           other features;
- 49           3. Ensuring that others are given the opportunity to speak and be heard 50           without interruption;
- 51           4. Forming an environment where everyone feels comfortable expressing their 52           opinions, even if those opinions are in a minority, provided they are 53           expressed in adherence to the other terms;
- 54           5. Discussing sensitive topics in a considerate manner, being mindful that 55           others may be personally affected by them;
- 56           6. Understanding the importance of lived experience, not dismissing or 57           seeking to explain the basic terms of issues or conflicts that others have 58           been personally affected by;
- 59           7. Supporting the inclusion of others who may be less familiar with the 60           issues being discussed in a way that does not put into question their 61           intelligence or capability to understand them;
- 62           8. Refraining from commenting on someone's appearance in ways that may make 63           them feel uncomfortable or objectified;
- 64           9. Avoiding the use of language which treats a certain level of mental or 65           physical health or bodily ability or a lack of as being normal or more 66           desirable;
- 67           10. Showing an appreciation and a consideration for other people's cultural or 68 religious practices and beliefs, including understanding that what is 69 acceptable in one's own culture or religion may not be in others;

70 11. Appeals to cultural norms shall not justify behavior that constitutes 71 discrimination, harassment, or abuse as defined in this Code;

72 12. Not feeding racist, gender or other stereotypes in their speech, actions, 73 or behaviour, even as a joke or ironically;

74 13. Refraining from physical contact beyond basic greetings without consent 75 and showing respect for the personal space of others;

76 14. Not peer pressuring others into partaking in voluntary activities;

77 15. Not bullying others for perceived mistakes or differences, defined as 78 anything that is intended to draw laughter at their expense;

79 16. Not engage in any form of harassment, abuse, intimidation, or hostile 80 behaviour towards fellow JEFers and participants in JEF activities.

81 2. Consent

82 All parties involved need to be familiar with the concept of consent and what 83 constitutes sexual and emotional harassment.

84 Consent is defined for the purposes of this document as an agreement between two 85 or more people to engage in activities together, while particularly relevant in 86 the context of sexual interactions, the concept of consent also serves as a 87 general guideline for respectful interpersonal behaviour.

88 Consent is not always given or refused through verbal or written approval and 89 those requesting it need to take into account non-verbal or written forms of 90 approval such as tone or body language.

91 If there is any doubt that you have been given consent, then the activity should 92 be stopped. Consent can be withdrawn at any time and if this occurs, any failure 93 to stop the activity will be treated as harassment or abuse.

94 Consent cannot be given by someone who is significantly impaired by alcohol or 95 other substances and as a result, they are not fully conscious, awake or capable 96 of making informed decisions.

97 If someone agrees to an activity because of pressure or the threat of bullying, 98 even if it is implicit, then this does not constitute consent.

99 Consent should be defined in an easy-to-understand way according to the 100 definition provided in the document at the beginning.

101 3. Assumptions

102 As an inclusive and empowering space for young people from many backgrounds, JEF 103 is committed to the pursuit of a free and united Europe.

104 Understanding that prejudices and unconscious biases can be ingrained in us, it 105 is the responsibility of each individual involved in an event to actively avoid 106 making assumptions, including but not limited to:

107 1. A person's background or opinions based on their skin colour, other 108 external features, or their accent and vocabulary;

109 2. A person's country of origin, whether this be its political status, 110 economic status, or any other elements of their culture;

111 3. A person's religious or political affiliation, and what this means for 112 their opinions, convictions, and beliefs on a range of issues;

113 4. A person's gender or sexual identity, noting that neither are binary nor 114 are people required to place themselves on a spectrum upon request;

115 5. A person's ability to do the same things as someone else, especially in 116 the case of hidden disabilities;

117           6. A person's good health or otherwise.

118           While making assumptions is not necessarily against the CofC on the basis that 119           people can make the wrong judgements on the appropriate comments in a particular 120           context and that this does not require intervention, failure to apologise if 121           prompted would constitute a potential breach of 1A.

122           4. Power Relations

123           Members of any of the JEF statutory bodies (Executive Board, Federal Committee, 124           Arbitration Board, Auditors Committee), the Secretariat, Permanent Contact 125           People, and the Pool of Trainers are considered to be in a relative position of 126           power and therefore in a special and unique position of trust.

127           The words someone in a relative position of power speaks, the actions they take, 128           and the environment they create can carry more influence and pressure than other 129           members of the group.

130           Individuals in a relative position of power must take extra care to ensure they 131           are not unduly influencing or pressuring members of the group, especially with 132           regard to consent.

133           Ways these individuals may take extra care include self-reflection, deferring to 134           the organisers and ensuring that they are not seen as having more power than 135           they have, and being open to feedback.

136           The CofC applies to these individuals in the same way as it would anyone else, 137           and no claim of a breach of the CofC may be investigated either by themselves or 138           someone who has a close relationship with them.

139           5. Relations with the Secretariat

140           The office hours of the Secretariat are 09:00 to 18:30 Central European Time.
141           These need to be respected, with no pressure exerted to work outside of office 142           hours.

143           The Secretariat should not be contacted on their personal phone number, email 144           address, or social media accounts for work-related purposes without express 145           prior agreement.

146 The relationship between the Secretariat, the other JEF statutory bodies and 147 positions of power, and the national sections, must be founded on mutual trust.
148 If issues cannot be resolved by the Executive Board and the Secretariat, the 149 issue will be elevated to the Permanent Contact People.

150 6. Obligations

151 Presenting the Code of Conduct

- 152 1. The Code shall be circulated ahead of and in every JEF Europe event and 153 activity where applicable. The Code shall be presented on the first day 154 and when deemed necessary reminders to the code shall be given by the 155 appropriate party;
- 156 2. The Code shall be introduced using the Code of Conduct presentation;
- 157 3. The presentation of the Code of Conduct shall:
  - 158 1. ensure that participants understand its content and obligations;
  - 159 2. be appropriate to the purpose of the document;
  - 160 3. consider the type and duration of the event;
  - 161 4. The Code shall be presented by one of the organisers, facilitators, 162 or the Contact Persons, and the means to report to the Contact 163 Persons shall be presented at the same time;
  - 164 5. The Code shall be accessible for reference throughout the event or 165 activity.

166 Permanent Contact Persons

- 167 1. Permanent Contact Persons are dedicated to ensuring safety and feeling of 168 safety across the association and can be contacted online at anytime;
- 169 2. At least three (3) Permanent Contact Persons shall be elected by the 170 upcoming Federal Committee and have a two-year mandate;

- 171 3. The number of Permanent Contact Persons shall be uneven in order to enable 172 clear decision-making in cases where differing opinions arise, without the 173 option of abstaining or not voting on the issue if that would impede 174 making a decision;
- 175 4. The Permanent Contact Persons shall represent different gender identities;
- 176 5. The Permanent Contact Persons shall, to the greatest extent possible, 177 reflect the diversity of JEF's membership, including different gender 178 identities and, where possible, different backgrounds with regard to 179 disability, ethnicity, sexual orientation, and geographical origin, so 180 that all members can find a Contact Person with relevant lived experience;
- 181 6. The Permanent Contact Persons shall be familiar with the Code of Conduct 182 and charged to interpret and act in accordance;
- 183 7. In case the Permanent Contact Person is unable to continue in the role or 184 resigns, a new Permanent Contact person shall be elected by the Federal 185 Committee for the remainder of the term.
- 186 8. When possible permanent Contact Persons may not hold a position in any 187 of the JEF Europe Statutory bodies.

188 Contact Persons

- 189 1. Contact Persons are dedicated to ensuring safety and sense of safety and 190 to being available for participants in person and online;
- 191 2. At least two (2) Contact Persons shall be appointed by the organisers for 192 every event and activity of JEF Europe. For smaller activities with fewer 193 than ten (10) participants, the appointment of one (1) Contact Person 194 shall be considered sufficient;
- 195 3. For online meetings of task forces, political commissions, and similar 196 groups, the chair(s) may act as Contact Persons unless another person is 197 designated;

- 198 4. The Contact Persons shall be selected so that they are available 199 throughout the event or activity and they cannot hold a position of 200 President, Vice President or a Member of FC Presidium;
- 201 5. The organising team of an event where two or more Contact Persons are 202 appointed, must ensure that Contact Persons represent different gender 203 identities;
- 204 1. In exceptional cases when people of multiple gender are not directly 205 available e.g. in the organising team, contact person can be one of 206 the participants in the event or one of the permanent contact 207 persons can assist remotely.
- 208 2. Wherever possible, Contact Persons should not be part of the main 209 organising team of the event in order to ensure independence and 210 approachability for participants.
- 211 6. The organising team must ensure that Contact Persons represent different 212 gender identities and, wherever possible, reflect broader dimensions of 213 diversity relevant to the event's participant profile, including 214 disability, ethnicity, and LGBTIQ+ experience;
- 215 7. The Contact Persons shall be trained by persons familiar with the Code of 216 Conduct in interpreting and acting in accordance with it, as well as in 217 facilitating the follow-up of a breach;
- 218 8. The Contact Persons shall be appointed and trained ahead of the event or 219 activity in question;
- 220 8.A. The Contact Persons are advised to remain vigilant during the 221 entirety of the event, by reducing as much as possible their consumption 222 of alcohol and/or other substances that may affect their cognitive 223 capabilities.
224
- 225 9. If you do not feel comfortable reporting to the Contact Person, if you 226 does not feel your rights have been ensured, or if you have any 227 complaints, please contact one of the Permanent Contact Persons;

228 10. When multiple organisations are collaborating in organisation of an event 229 or other activity covered by this Code, the Contact Persons should 230 represent multiple organising parties.

231 Code of Conduct form

232 1. A specific form is made for each individual event or activity and is only 233 accessible by the Contact Persons and shall be actively monitored during 234 the intended event or activity and for four (4) weeks after the end of the 235 event or activity by the Contact Persons;

236 2. The form shall provide the possibility to state what happened and what 237 they wish that the next steps are;

238 3. The form shall have the possibility to provide one's contact details or 239 opt for anonymity;

240 4. There shall be a permanent form available on JEF website through which the 241 Permanent Contact Persons can be contacted anonymously.

242 7. Application

243 This section outlines the scope of application of the Code of Conduct, including 244 to whom it applies and in which contexts, settings, and circumstances it is to 245 be observed.

246 To whom this Code of Conduct apply:

247 As outlined in the Introduction chapter and chapter on power relations , the 248 CofC applies to all JEF events and those in a position of power.

249 The CofC does not apply to events of national sections and other affiliated 250 organisations of JEF, unless the European bodies are involved as co-organisers, 251 as enforcement does not fall under the responsibility of the statutory bodies.

252 National sections and other affiliated organisations of JEF are entrusted to 253 comply with their legal responsibilities in all events and if this is in any 254 question then appropriate measures will be taken, including the recommendation 255 of disaffiliation pending a vote.

256 JEF Europe encourages national sections and affiliated organisations to adopt 257 and enforce their own Codes of Conduct or comparable safeguarding policies 258 adapted to their national context. In cases where such a document does not 259 exist, this Code of Conduct may be used as a guiding framework for ensuring 260 safe, respectful, and inclusive participation in their activities until a 261 dedicated document is developed and adopted at the national level.

262 When registering for or participating in a JEF event, each participant accepts 263 and commits to these rules by default.

264 JEF Europe requires that the behaviour of an individual participating in any 265 offline or online activity of JEF Europe, or representing JEF Europe in external 266 events, meetings, public communication, or online spaces, must be consistent 267 with and follow these rules.

268 Participants in JEF activities are encouraged to report any potential violations 269 of the Code of Conduct. At the beginning of each event, organisers must clearly 270 explain the reporting procedures and ensure that any reported concerns are 271 reviewed according to the established process.

272 As a participant in JEF Europe activities, you are expected to understand and 273 follow the Code, as well as your obligations under the law applicable wherever 274 you are. JEF Europe recognises that its network is conducting activities that 275 also involve the participation of minors on occasion. The Protection Guidelines 276 for Minors of JEF Europe detail the additional safeguarding measures to be 277 applied in case of the participation of minors.

278 The organisers of an event have a duty of care for anyone who is involved in a 279 potential violation of the CofC and must follow the accordant safeguarding 280 procedures.

281 As JEF events may occasionally include participants who are legally considered 282 minors (defined for the purposes of JEF as individuals under 18 years of age), 283 organisers have additional safeguarding responsibilities.

284 If you are ever in doubt about how to follow the rules set in the Code of 285 Conduct, you are encouraged to ask for guidance from any of the Contact Persons 286 (as defined in Section 11).

287 1 The Protection Guidelines for Minors of JEF Europe, 2023, available on the 288 internal area of JEF Europe website,
289 https://drive.google.com/file/d/19AvgewbUmsfGPuN7ziWy-
290 M8KE1xqCGRd/view?usp=sharing

291 Where and when this Code applies:

292 The Code of Conduct applies during both online and offline activities of JEF
293 Europe, in both formal and informal settings. The Code also applies between JEF
294 Europe events, including in all communication channels affiliated with JEF 295 Europe, such as messaging platforms, social media, email communication, and 296 other digital spaces used by the organisation, as well as in communications with 297 the staff of the JEF Europe Secretariat.

298 This Code may apply or act as a guide, at the discretion of the organisers, 299 within events hosted by more than one JEF section where no similar document has 300 been adopted. When collaborating with other organisations with their Codes of 301 Conduct or comparable documents, the organising parties will decide which 302 document shall apply but the JEF party involved needs to ensure that the minimum 303 standards set in this document are a reality also in the given collaboration.

304 A formal setting shall be understood as including any part of the working 305 programme of an event, Task Force or Political Commission meetings, and 306 statutory bodies' meetings.

307 Informal settings shall be understood as including any activities happening in 308 connection to a formal meeting or any other JEF Europe event, including social 309 media interactions directly related to JEF Europe activities, or other informal 310 get-together clearly linked to JEF Europe activities. Activities surrounding the 311 working programme, including, but not limited to, social events and online 312 communication, shall be considered as informal settings.

313 8. Reporting

314 The Code of Conduct applies to every member of JEF Europe and every participant 315 in a JEF activity, regardless of their role in the organisation. If you observe 316 or experience behaviour that concerns you, or that may represent a violation of 317 our Code, please raise the issue with one of the Contact Persons promptly, 318 provided you feel comfortable doing so. You may choose to report anonymously or 319 be accompanied by a person you trust when making a report. This will allow JEF
320 Europe an opportunity to deal with the issue and correct it, ideally before it 321 becomes a violation of law or a risk to health or security.

322 Situations can be reported to the event Contact Persons up to four weeks after 323 the event, and the anonymous form will remain open for the same period. The 324 Permanent Contact Persons may be contacted at any time, with no fixed deadline, 325 and their route is fully equivalent to the event-specific route.

326 Inappropriate or unwanted behaviour or action can be reported through:

327 1. One or more of the Contact Persons presented at the beginning of the 328 activity, in person or online;

329 2. A Code of conduct form that can be used to report anonymously;

330 3. Other means mentioned in the beginning of the event or activity.

331 JEF Europe is committed to ensuring that reporting processes are accessible to 332 all participants, including those with disabilities. Where necessary, reasonable 333 accommodations should be provided to ensure equal access to the reporting 334 process. Reports may be made verbally (in person or by call) as well as in 335 writing. The reporting form shall be available in plain language and, where 336 possible, easy-read format. A support person of the reporter's choosing may 337 accompany them throughout any reporting or follow-up process.

338 9. Enforcement

339 In case of any breach from the Code of Conduct, the dedicated contact persons at 340 the event or activity are required to, on their best judgement and with the 341 consent of the person affected by the conduct, in proportionate and progressive 342 measures and depending on the severity of the action:

343 1. Remind participants of their obligation to act in accordance with the 344 present Code of Conduct and give them advice on how to do so;

345 2. Engage in a one to one conversation with the person in breach of the Code 346 to make sure that there is a mutual understanding of the nature of the 347 inappropriate action, including clarifying and explaining possible 348 misunderstandings and intercultural differences;

- 349 3. Inform, only when necessary, the other organisers of the event or the 350 meeting chairs about the problematic behaviour or the violation of the 351 Code;
- 352 4. Facilitate a structured conversation between parties to resolve the 353 situation, should the affected party in the situation consent to such 354 conversation;
- 355 5. In consultation with the organising team and the facilitators of the 356 activity, suspend the session and/or ban the person in breach of the Code 357 from attending the remainder of the event or activity;
- 358 6. In consultation with the organising team and the facilitators of the 359 activity and the Arbitration Board, the Executive Board may impose 360 sanctions up to and including restrict or ban participation temporarily or 361 permanently in future JEF Europe activities.

362 In the case of violent or other potentially illegal behaviour, contact the 363 police in consultation with the person affected in accordance with the national 364 law.

365 The Executive Board in consultation with organisers and contact persons of the 366 event may decide to suspend or permanently ban the person in breach of the Code 367 from future attending JEF events or activities. The decision shall be taken 368 within a month after the report is received.

369 In situations where the person reporting is known, they should be communicated 370 with as soon as practical about reception of their report. In any case, the 371 action agreed on by the contact persons and the person reporting should be taken 372 as soon as possible and when possible, during the event. The case is closed when 373 all of the agreed on steps have been taken to resolve the situation and all the 374 parties involved in the report have been made aware of the steps taken and of 375 the closure. When applicable and the reporting person is known, the Contact 376 Persons may encourage them to seek professional advice or help.

377 If a report leads to a formal follow-up or investigation, the person whose 378 behaviour is being examined shall be informed of the concern raised and the 379 nature of the alleged breach of the Code of Conduct. This communication shall 380 take place as soon as reasonably possible, while ensuring that the identity of 381 the reporting person remains confidential if anonymity has been requested. All 382 parties involved shall be treated fairly and respectfully throughout the 383 process.

384 10. Legal steps

385 This Code applies to all participants, organisers, trainers, elected 386 representatives, staff members, and any other individuals involved in JEF Europe 387 activities.

388 They are expected to comply with the Code of Conduct as well as all applicable 389 laws, rules and regulations. In a case where the provision of the Code of 390 Conduct should conflict with applicable law, the law prevails.

391 In cases where behaviour may constitute a criminal offence under applicable 392 national law, including but not limited to physical violence, threats, 393 harassment, or discrimination prohibited by law, the Contact Persons, in 394 consultation with the person affected whenever possible, may contact the 395 relevant law enforcement authorities where required or appropriate under 396 national legislation.

397 Such measures do not limit or interfere with the right of the affected person or 398 group to independently pursue legal action or seek protection through the 399 appropriate legal channels.

400 11. Privacy

401 To protect the privacy of all parties concerned, the Contact Persons and other 402 persons involved in the process are bound to confidentiality and discretion 403 regarding any information they become aware of during the reporting process, 404 except if any legal procedure requires it or for the safety of the individual.

405 The Contact Persons and other persons involved in the process shall not disclose 406 the identities of the parties concerned without their prior consent.

407 The Permanent Contact Persons shall develop and maintain an internal guidance 408 document for Contact Persons. This document shall contain anonymised 409 descriptions of cases and practical guidance on how different situations have 410 been handled in the past. All information included in this guide must be fully 411 anonymised and written in a way that prevents any case from being traced back to 412 specific individuals, events, or locations. The purpose of this document is to 413 support future Contact Persons in responding appropriately to potential breaches 414 of the Code of Conduct while preserving the privacy and confidentiality of all 415 parties involved.

416 In the cases where the Executive Board may decide to ban or suspend someone from 417 attending further JEF events, the decision may be reflected in the minutes of 418 that meeting in a way so as to guarantee the anonymity of the persons involved 419 in that Code of Conduct breach.